

THE RALEIGH NEWS

M.J.Hawkins de 1377

VOL. XI. NO. 30

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 5, 1877.

$5.00 PER ANNUM

By Telegraph.

NOON DISPATCHES.

EASTERN AFFAIRS.

THE PORTE ALLOWS RUSSIANS TO CARRY TIMBER ACROSS THE DANUBE FOR HOSPITAL HUTS.

Fight Between Russians and Turks. Russians Successful—Arrest of Poles—Reported Detent of Russians.

LONDON, October 4.—The Standard's Bushwicks dispatch contains the following: "The Turks abandoned Kalavach on the approach of the Russians around Tirmova."

Fifty refugees are dying daily from typhus fever.

The Daily News' Vienna dispatch has the following: "The French have arrived at Constantinople."

The Porte consented to allow the passage of timber across the Danube, for construction of huts for the Russian wounded.

Russia has offered to clear the obstructions from the mouth of the Danube, but the Sultan will not agree to prevent the entrance of Turkish men of war during the present war.

A special dispatch to the Daily News, dated Karajal, Wednesday, says: "A general attack was made on Mukhtar Pasha's whole line by Gen. Mikahil, who captured and took prisoner of the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Mukhtar's position, which was defended by only one single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured. The battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recapture this point but were repulsed. The loss of the town is insignificant, but hopes are entertained of cutting off Mukhtar from Kars. The Russians bivouacked on conquered positions, feeling sure to reconnoitre early to-morrow. About 1,500 Russians were killed and wounded. The Turks were misled by their spies and only expected to be attacked on their side."

The Times' Vienna dispatch says: "A number of Poles have been arrested for connection with the recent conspiracy. The fact that arms have been seized at various railway stations in Austria has produced a great sensation, as it seems and indicates that some attempt was intended in the direction of Poland as well as Romania."

A Reuter telegram from Constantinople says: "According to unofficial accounts the Russians under the Grand Duke Michael have been defeated twice Ani and Kars, two Russian Generals were killed."

More Concerning the Magnolia.

CHESTER PA., October 4.—The crew of the lost steamer "Magnolia" is still here waiting the arrival of the Captain, who had been unable to make arrangements for their transportation to New York, where they all live. The men are very destitute. The first officer says the boat had a hard time getting from the sinking vessel to the bark Stralsund which was too miles to seawards. One boat containing the crew was washed away shortly after leaving the Magnolia and the boat being buffeted about for three hours. The men having no oars, hung on to the sides until they were rescued by their comrades. The transfer required four or five hours. The sea ran very high and the waves between the ships. All the canvas of the Magnolia was torn to shreds, and it was impossible to stand on deck without holding on to some immovable part of the vessel. The men worked coolly and bravely. The Captain was the last to leave the ship and he and a few who were with him came near the left of the bark as it was then that the Magnolia had gone down and the men could not be saved. The second officer, however, prevailed upon the Captain of the bark to send the boat back, thus saving the entire party. All speak very highly of the brave conduct of Captain Doggett and of the Captain of the bark.

Peabody Trustees in Session—Forbury.

NEW YORK, October 4.—The Trustees of the Peabody Educational Fund have commenced their ninth annual session at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Present, Robert H. Winthrop, of Boston, President of the Board; Samuel W. Witman, Treasurer; Rev. Barnes Sears, of St. Paul, General Agent; Chief Justice Walter B. Green, Events, Hon. Hamilton Fish, Col. Thomas Lyman of Massachusetts, Hon. Wm. Aiken, of South Carolina, Hon. A. H. Miller, of Virginia, Gen. G. W. Riggs, of Washington, D. C., Gen. Henry R. Jackson of Georgia, Gen. Richard Taylor, of Louisiana, George-General J. K. Barnard, of the U. S. Cavalry.

The forces so far discovered aggregate $32,500, up to which Mr. Gilman raised $247,940. The belief is that Mr. Gilman has committed suicide is generally credited in insurance and bank circles. The principal losses were in large amounts, the names of whose names are not yet known, were reported as among the victims, one losing $28,000, and the other $20,000.

Fire in Vermont.

DERBY LINE, October 4.—At midnight a fire broke out in Studebaker's hotel, at Stanstead, province of Quebec, which was consumed with barns and outbuildings. The Couvent De La Congregation De Notre Dame, and the opposite side of the street, also went up in a m. burning, and the buildings adjacent are in great danger. The loss thus far will amount to about $25,000 dollars.

WASHINGTON.

The Lately Discovered Post office Fraud.

WASHINGTON, October 4.—The Post office swindle amounts to about $20,000. The swindle was the result of a combination between a clerk in the pay division, a department book-keeper and some St. Louis mail contractors. The fraud is six years old.

English Financial Matters.

LONDON, October 4.—The Times' financial news says: "On the sudden decline of consols yesterday morning the large withdrawals of gold from the Bank of England, which created the impression that money must become dearer."

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, October 4.—For the South Atlantic States clearing weather, preceded by rain areas in the Carolinas; colder northwest winds and rising barometer.

TWENTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS.

WASHINGTON, October 4.—The American Exchange Bank losses $50,000, and Henry Tallmadge & Co., $13,000. The sheriff still holds possession of Gilman's office in their behalf. It is believed a large safe in this office, which is secured by a combination lock, was the principal object of the robbery, and the buildings adjacent are in great danger. The loss thus far will amount to about $25,000 dollars.

More of Gilman's Frauds.

NEW YORK, October 4.—The Commercial Mutual Insurance Company losses $60,000 by Gilman's forged.

The American Exchange Bank losses $50,000, and Henry Tallmadge & Co., $13,000. The sheriff still holds possession of Gilman's office in their behalf.

It is believed a large safe in this office, which is secured by a combination lock, was the principal object of the robbery, and the buildings adjacent are in great danger. The loss thus far will amount to about $25,000 dollars.

President's Views of the Southern People.

A NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT says: "Gen. Grant's diary rounds in his log book for half a hour, but in an hour, be made a burgess or go seeing three or four hours, lunch an hour, go sight-seeing again, drift from one to five hours, or after dinner, spend the evening with invited guests of His Lordship, the host. All over the country, the countrymen are becoming more religious as we invite all our friends to see your guest, and of course visitors must do as the Scotchmen do in the matter of praying. Fortunately for the looks of the thing, Gen. Grant has already been accustomed to praying and does it very gracefully."

The Richmond Dispatch states that a competitive drill is to take place at the State Fair on Thursday, November 1st, at 12 o'clock, at the Gettysburg, commanding Fort Monroe. He proposed to get three United States officers to act as judges. The officers of the First Regiment will entertain the judges, and they hope that General Upton himself, the author of the tactics, will be one of them.

We see that political parties, religious organizations and secret societies are bound together by frequent conventions and assemblies; so too the farming interests of the land must necessarily be materially benefited by such a convention.

Our own country and town have always been well represented, nor have they been behind when compared with other communities and communities. We have heard of considerable preparation on the part of a number of our citizens, and we feel assured that the usual success will follow the efforts put forth in this laudable cause.

We are particularly well pleased that the young ladies of Salem, Franklin County, have prepared a magnificent display of fancy work, embracing a large variety of articles, which will attract much notice among the display in Floral Hall.

The service of our excellent Silver Cornet Band have also been secured, and will probably be engaged in playing in a procession which cannot fail to please and will surpass, in point of popularity and merit, anything they have previously given, and will add much to their deserved popularity.

THE SOCIALISTS.

What Was Done by the International Congress at Ghent.

INFORMATION has been received that the International Congress Workingmen of the world, which met at Ghent in the early part of May, has fixed upon New York as the quarters of the movement.

The Congress of the Socialist group, of Russia, Italy, Austria, Spain, and other countries were represented, and the last division of the globe to be admitted, sent its delegate. Progress reported from every country, but a protracted discussion it was resolved that the New World was the best field for Socialism, as it is the most advanced in its civilization. The last was long and bitter between New York and Moscow as the seat of the central propaganda, but the former city was finally chosen as the headquarters of the Association. An effort is being made to have the next World's Congress of the International Society held in this city.

A Kentucky Sensation.

CINCINNATI, October 1.—Hon. Cassius M. Clay yesterday morning shot and instantly killed a negro named Perry White. General Clay had employed White's mother as cook, but finding she had been robbing him of silver plate and other articles, dismissed her yesterday morning. He started from his farm, six miles from Richmond, Ky., to visit a negro church in the neighborhood for the purpose of hiring another servant. While on the way he discovered a loose horse in a pasture near the roadside and the negro Perry White, endeavoring to steal a valuable horse and was known as a desperate character, and upon perceiving him, Clay immediately leaped down, confronted the negro and ordered him to throw up his hands. The negro obeyed and Clay struck him roughly and ordered him not to leave the place, telling him that if he moved from his position until Clay was removed he would kill him. As soon as Clay started for his horse the negro rushed after him, but Clay turned and suddenly fired twice, killing the negro in the neck and breast. General Clay is a man of towering size and derived his authority from a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting a falsehood. The advocates of the bill declare that the proposed church will be a branch of the Episcopal Church, and derive its authority in a direct line from the Apostles, and insist that, in order to occupy its true ground, the church ought to take its true name. The proposal will certainly be defeated.

A strong effort will be made to have an arbitration board to determine the question of the negro's right to be buried wholly from the prayer-book. This is a measure that will meet support from members of all parties upon the floor, but its adoption at this time is doubtful.

The only business to come before the General Convention is which Virginians are especially interested is the plan to divide the diocese of Virginia by creating West Virginia and erecting it into a new diocese.

It has been supposed by some that the House of Bishops has powers of legislation separate and apart from the Bishop's hold on the church. They regard it as conceding to the Church of Rome priority of existence, and to that extent asserting

DAILY NEWS.

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 3, 1877.

The City.

THE RALEIGH NEWS IS THE OLDEST DAILY NEWSPAPER IN RALEIGH, AND HAS THE LARGEST DAILY CIRCULATION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

THE WEEKLY NEWS HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER IN NORTH CAROLINA, AND IS THE MOST VALUABLE AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

Index to New Advertisements.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER—Grand Fall Opening. RUFFIN ROLLS—Sash, Door and Blind Factory. JULIUS LEWIS & Co.—Local Notice.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The county commissioners allowed quite a number of claims yesterday.

The Board of Aldermen hold a regular meeting to-night at the Mayor's office.

The meetings continue nightly at the Baptist Church with increased interest.

The Treasurer issued a drummer's license to S. A. Gutmann, of New York City.

The revival at the Person Street M. E. Church is still in progress, and an ever increasing interest is manifested.

The "Oak City Blues," colored volunteer company had a festival at Metropolitan Hall last night, for the purpose of raising funds to purchase a flag.

Charles Dunston, the barber, who had his looking-glasses smashed by a mob last party a few days ago, wants to rent a couple of large mirrors suitable for a barber's shop, for a few days.

The Raleigh Light Infantry will meet at the Mayor's office this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, sharp without uniform, for target practice. Four of the best marksmen are to be selected for the team to shoot at the Fair, the champion shot of the company making the fifth member of the team.

A Musical Treat.

The citizens of Raleigh are promised a rare musical treat at Tucker Hall, on Friday evening, 12th inst. Dr. Gustave Satter, of whom the papers speak as being the most accomplished pianist in this country, proposes to give an entertainment of great interest and attraction.

We could fill columns with extracts from notices of his performances in other places, recently in the cities of Virginia, particularly, all of which appear almost extravagant in their praises and descriptions of the sensations produced by his unrivaled performances. The "Drapeshift" of Richmond, in calling attention to an entertainment in that city for the benefit of the Lee monument, says: "The concert at Assembly Hall-to-night is for the Lee monument. Dr. Satter, the greatest living pianist, will honor the memory of the greatest soldier of the age."

Equinoctial. A letter from a gentleman in Edenton, N. C., to a friend in this city, dated October 1st, says:

"We have had a favorable visitation in the equinoctial gale just passed. Every public bridge, and every water-mill, in the counties of Gates, Chowan, Perquimans, Bertie, Tyrrell and Washington is destroyed. The fisheries on the sound are greatly damaged. The loss is immense."

We hope that the rains along the line of the W. & R. Railroad have flooded almost the whole country, and that there has been great destruction of mills and other property in that section of our State.

Beautiful Work.

We were at the office of the Secretary of the North Carolina Agricultural Association, some beautiful cardboards, together with fine specimens of crochet and bead work, all executed by Miss Ada Williamson of Graham, a niece of Col. Holt, the President of the Association. The young lady is only 15 years of age, and the articles are of such artistic design and workmanship that they would reflect credit upon any one. They will be on exhibition at the Fair, and we are sure will attract their share of attention.

Will Compete. We learn that Mr. Harper Elam, a compositor in the Observer office, Charlotte, will compete for the premium offered by the committee to the fastest compositor at the approaching State Fair.

We are also gratified to add the following:

One bale, three reams 24x38, 56 pounds, No. 1, super sized and calendered book paper, $35.00, given by Henry Linderman, 15 and 17, Beckman street, New York, for the specimen of fancy job printing. This is also through Messrs. Edwards, Broughton & Co.

The premium first named will be divided, $25 worth of job type being awarded for plain job printing, and $25 worth for fancy job. Let us have animated competition for these valuable premiums.

Crimson Court Juries.

The county commissioners yesterday drew the following panel of jurors for the next term of Wake County Criminal Court, which begins November 12, 1877. G. W. Jones, W. H. Pollard, M. W. Brown, W. F. Collins, J. P. Powell, Joel Evans, A. B. Upchurch, J. H. Betts, Jesse Duke, Willis Parrish, W. A. Smith, Gaston Jones, W. G. Albin, Samuel Shaw, A. C. Dunn, J. S. Hobbs, J. W. Hollard, A. J. Scarborough, Spence Gandy, Henry Hobby, D. B. Buffalo, Thomas Bedford, William Buffalo, W. H. Bleck, Ananias Jordan, B. F. Fort and U. C. Powell.

Retirement.

Adjutant General Johnston Jones returned yesterday from Wilmington, N. C., where he has been engaged in inspecting some commands of the State Guard, both white and colored.

Wilmington will be well represented at our fair, by two companies of Infantry and Light Cavalry.

The Downpour.

The rain fell almost without intermission yesterday. We ask Old Proba- bilities to give us all the water now, but cut off the sky supply during Fair week.

Such delightful weather has greeted us that we trust we may be blessed with bright skies this time. Everybody must be here to see what the "Old North State" can do when she exerts herself.

If You Want One.

Lumsden will sell you a cook stove at or below cost, to make room for a large lot of "Old North States," to arrive in a few days. COME QUICK AND RECEIVE A BARGAIN, at Lumsden's "Silver Medall" city cook stove store, where you will find all kinds of cooking and heating stoves. Fayetteville street opposite the market.

Wanted.

Twenty-five or thirty acres of land, not more than three miles from the city. Nice residence for sale in northern part of the city. Call and talk the matter over with E. G. Brown.

For Sale.

Consignments of Cotton, Flour &c., solicited for storage and sale which will have prompt attention in sales and returns.

dm

The N. C. S. G. at The Fair.

The following commands of the State Guard are confidently expected to be at the State Fair, to be held at the Fair, Tuesday, 16th October, and will escort Gov. Vance and staff, with Col. Thomas M. Holt, President North Carolina Agricultural Society, to open the Fair at 12 m., Tuesday. There will go into quarters at the State Fair, Lt. Col. B. Manig, Maj. R. D. Hancock, Raleigh—Co. A, Raleigh Light Infantry—1st Lieut. D. W. Bain, Comdg. Newbern—Co. B, Newbern Grays—Capt. Wm. Whitford, Captain, 1st Co. 1st City Riflemen, Capt. L. S. Wood, Goldsboro—Co. D, Goldsboro Rifles—Capt. Geo. S. Campbell, Hillsboro—Co. E, Orange Guards—Capt. H. P. Jones, Tarboro—Co. F, Edgecombe Guards—Capt. J. W. Cotten, Captain, 1st Battalion, Lt. Col. M. Taylor, Maj. J. G. Harris, Fayetteville—Co. A, Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry—Maj. A. McKeithen, Co. B, Fayetteville Light Infantry—Capt. G. A. Polk, Co. C, Wilmington Light Infantry—Capt. Walter Coney, Co. D, Whiting Rifles—Capt. W. L. Hand, Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

Of the 3d battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 4th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 5th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 6th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 7th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 8th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 9th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 10th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 11th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 12th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 13th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 14th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 15th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 16th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 17th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 18th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 19th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 20th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 21st Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 22nd Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 23rd Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen—Capt. J. M. Davis, Pineville—Co. I, Mecklenburg county—Company I, Polk Rifles, Capt. John G. Potts.

On the 24th Battalion, Lieut. Col. W. A. Elision, Maj. W. C. Graham, Capt. S. S. Pegram, Co. F, Charlotte Grays—Capt. W. L. Hand,

Polkton—Co. G, Anson Guards—Capt. G. B. Bruch, Captain, 1st Battalion, Mecklenburg—Co. H, Mecklenburg Riflemen